

AskDGC! DISCLAIMER: The comments and information provided are for general information purposes only, and should not be construed as formal or duty-bound legal advice for any workers' compensation coverage or claims handling function. Our response does not create or constitute an attorney-client relationship between you and Dietz, Gilmor & Chazen, APC, or any person we employ. California Workers' Compensation law is highly technical, and formal or duty-bound legal advice from an attorney requires a full review of all factual information and documentation. If you have retained or are already working with workers' compensation defense counsel, we advise you revisit with them before taking any related action. Alternatively, we are available to discuss these issues with you further and informally in-person or by telephone, and would be happy to offer our services as your workers' compensation handling attorney or attorneys should you so decide. Please do not hesitate to reach out further to any of our attorneys at www.dqcattorneys.com.